WHEREAS, This Convention have observed a deliberate, and apparently systematic effort, on the part of several States of this Union to urge a war of extermination up-on the institution of slavery as it exists under the Constitution of the United States, and of several States by Legislative enactments annulling acts of Con-gress, passed in pursuance of the Constitution, and incorporating large menied associations to abolitionize Kansas, and through Kansas, to operate upon the contiguous States of Missouri, Arkanasa and Texas-this Convention representing that portion of Missouri more immediately affeeted by these movement, deem it proper to make known their opinions and 1. That we regard the institution of Af-

States where it has no existence, with a view to affect its condition, or bring about its destruction, is a direct and dangerous attack upon the reserved rights of the several slaveholding States, and is an impertinent interference in matters nowise concerning the agitators, and if persisted in, must sooner or later destroy all harmony and good feeling between the States and the citizens thereof, and will finally result in a dissolution of the Union. 2. That the resolution on the part of several of the Northern and Western non- cided disposition to 'pitch in." slaveholding States, never to admit another slaveholding State into this Union, is substantially a declaration of hostility to our Federal Constitution, and avows a purpose to disregard its Compromises—and implies a threat of continued aggression upon, and ultimate destruction of slavery under whatever sanctions it may exist.

3. That the diffusion of slavery over a wider surface, tends greatly to ameliorate views. Loc the condition of the slave, whilst it advances the prosperity of his owner, and the admission of new slaveholding States into the Union by maintaining to some extent the equilibrium between the conflicting influences which now control the federal government, is the only reliable guaranty which the slave holding minority have for the protection of their property, against unconstitutional and oppressive legislation by the non-slaveholding majority, now and hereaf-ter destined to be in the ascendancy.

4. That we cordially approve the recent net of Congress, for the the settlement of Kansas and Nebraska, and the act of 1850 popularly known as the Fugitive slave law

5. That the incorporation of monied associations under the patronage of sovercign States of this Union, for the avowed purpose of recruiting and colonizing large ar- with the best speakers in the House. mies of Abolitionists upon the Territory of Kansas, and for the avowed purpose of stroying the value and existence of slave

NEW GROCERY STORE.

THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of his friends and the public generally to his large and well selected stock of Family Groceries. Those wishing to purchase goods in his line will find it to their interest to call and examine before supplying themselves elsewhere, as he is determined, by selling low, and on favorable terms, to merita liberal share of public patronage. JAMES B. FORBIS. Glasgow, September 14, 1854.

WHERE ARE YOU GOING?

MACON COUNTY, June 21, 1855. TOHN, where have you been? Down to Glas-JOHN, where have you been? Down to Glas-gow, What's the price of salt, down there? Well, it has risen since we heard it was $2 50; I paid $3, but got the finest sacks you ever saw. Where did you get it from? At Forbis'—they are the fullest-sacks in town—worth at least a quarter more than any other you can get;—I be-lieve he keeps the best and cheapest goods in town. Did you get anything more? Oh yes. leve he keeps the best and cheapest goods in town. Did you get anything more? Oh yes, sugar and coffee, and some of the best old whisky you ever drank. What did you take down to trade? I took down some bacon. Who did you sell that to? O, to Forbis, he gave me more for it than any of them would; that is the place to trade. Does he keep anything else besides Groceries? Oh yes, he has everything a farmer wants—Dry Goods of all descriptions, and first rate domestic at 81 cents—aint that cheap?—just look at it. Well I am going down next week to buy my groceries, and some other things, and I shall be sure to give him a call, and if he treats me right I will buy of him. You must be sure to call on him. What did you say his name was? FORBIS—he lives in the upper end of town, the first store you come to on the front street. Well, I am in sort of a hurry, and must be getting along; so good bye.
